

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Dawn K. Roberts
Interim Secretary of State

DIVISION OF ELECTIONS

August 24, 2010

Kevin Burns
Candidate for State Senator, District 35
Post Office Box 610817
North Miami, FL 33261-3261

Dear Mr. Burns:

Your campaign treasurer's report, which was due August 20, 2010, has not been received.

Section 106.07(8)(b), Florida Statutes, requires that the filing officer immediately notify you of the failure to file this report and that a fine will be assessed of $50 per day for the first 3 days late and, thereafter $500 per day, although a fine cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day for each late day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Once your report is filed, this office will notify you of the specific amount of your fine. Fines must be paid to the filing officer within 20 days of receipt of the payment due notice.

Please be advised, however, that failure to file a campaign treasurer's report may constitute a violation of Chapter 106, Florida Statutes, independent of the automatic fine violation referenced above. Therefore, if you fail to file a report, the division will turn the matter over to the Florida Elections Commission.

Section 106.265(1), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Florida Elections Commission to impose a civil penalty up to $1,000 per count for each willful violation of Chapter 106.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Erika Bowen at (850) 245-6240.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief
Bureau of Election Records
