RE: Case No.: FEC 11-076 and FEC 11-077

Dear Mr. Burns:

The Florida Elections Commission assessed a civil penalty against you of $100 for failing to timely file the 2010 F1 and 2010 F2 campaign treasurer reports. Copies of the Commission's Final Orders are enclosed. Our records reflect a balance of $100 due and owing to the State of Florida.

The 30 days provided in the Final Order for payment of the civil penalty have passed. Therefore, unless payment of the civil penalty is made within 10 days of the date of this letter, the Division of Elections will file an enforcement action against you in the circuit court in the Second Judicial Circuit, refer the matter to the Department of Financial Services, or take other appropriate action to collect the amount due. If you are a state officer or employee, the Department of State can and will seek involuntary wage deductions unless you agree to a voluntary payment or deduction from your wages within a reasonable time. If it is necessary to take legal action to collect the fine, the law provides that you pay for the cost of collection, including all attorney's fees.

If you have any questions, please contact Theresa Holdeen at (850) 245-6250. Your prompt attention in this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Kristi Reid Bronson, Chief
Bureau of Election Records
