To Whom It May Concern:

I want to set the record straight regarding Bruce Lamberto, my ex-husband.

Bruce and I were married for more than 16 years. During that time, we had a loving marriage and raised our son and Bruce's daughter together. To this day, we continue to have a great relationship despite our divorce. In fact, I respect and admire Bruce as a father, and as a man who serves as a role model to his children.

Unfortunately, there is currently a smear campaign underway against Bruce. I assume this is because he is running for North Miami Beach City Council. His political rivals and enemies are making outrageous allegations that are completely false and inflammatory. It's despicable that people will stop at nothing to score cheap political points.

I want to state clearly and unequivocally that throughout our entire marriage, Bruce never exhibited any behavior toward me that could even remotely be described as abusive. We had our differences, of course. That's why our marriage ended.

But for anyone to claim or otherwise imply that those differences entailed abusive behavior is just plain wrong.

I ask that anyone with any questions about our marriage should contact me directly. I will gladly set the record for anyone who truly wants the truth.

I also ask that voters support Bruce for the City Council. He's a wonderful man with a wealth of experience and knowledge about North Miami Beach. If he is half as good as a member of the City Council as he was a father and husband, the city will be in good hands.

Sincerely,

Bethune C. Lamberto
