

MAYOR GEORGE VALLEJO DISTANCES HIMSELF FROM BRUCE LAMBERTO

After multiple exchanges with Stephanie Kienzle of VotersOpinion.com, it has been made clear that she is displeased about my efforts to report Bruce Lamberto's past history of mental illness and domestic violence.

What has been made even more clear is that Ms. Kienzle is willing to do or say anything to protect North Miami Beach Mayor George Vallejo. And perhaps our reporting here has turned up the heat on Mr. Vallejo.

Possibly acting as Mayor Vallejo's press secretary, Ms. Kienzle reports that he has NOT endorsed Bruce Vallejo for City Council. Of course, she doesn't say is that Mayor Vallejo's political committee has sent out mailers attacking Councilwoman Phyllis Smith [click here to see them here and here]. Well, isn't that negative mailer supposed to benefit a candidate running against this incumbent?

Read Ms. Kienzle's full comments on CNN.com that discusses this story regarding Bruce Lamberto's history of mental illness and domestic violence.
