Notice of Mandatory Continuance

COMES NOW Joseph S. Geller, the undersigned, and hereby files the following Notice of Mandatory Continuance, and as grounds therefore would state as follows:

1). The undersigned attorney, Joseph Geller, is an elected member of the Florida Legislature.

2). Florida Statute 11.111 provides in pertinent part as follows:

“Any proceeding before any court, municipality, or agency of government of this state shall stand continued, without the continuance being charged against any party, during any session of the Legislature and for a period of time 15 days prior to any session of the Legislature and 15 days subsequent to the conclusion of any session of the Legislature, and during any period of required committee work and for a period of time 1 day prior and 1 day subsequent thereto when either attorney representing the litigants is a legislator or when a Member of the legislature is a party or witness or is scheduled to appear before any municipal government, administrative board, or agency, when notice to that effect is given to the convening authority by such member.” (emphasis added.)

3) The above statute is self executing, non-discretionary, and requires no hearing. Upon filing of this notice, the Continuance is automatically granted as a matter of law.

4). Special session of the Florida Legislature has been called beginning August 10, 2015 and ending August 21, 2015. Accordingly, no hearings may be held within 15 days prior, or 15 days subsequent, to the Special Session, and the matter shall stand continued during that time.
