I love technology and I am currently working on some of my own proprietary software that will revolutionize the telecommunications and advertising industry.
As much as I like technology my passion doesn't stop there. I am also an executive producer at Camelot Recordz in West Palm Beach where I develop artists, buy, sell, and create Hip Hop, Pop, and RnB music. As a business man I'm always looking for the next big thing, the next bright idea to take it to the top; always working always making moves. But personally I'm a down to earth kinda guy that lives life to its fullest. I know who I am, where I'm from and where I want to be soI say this to everyone - Don't wait for an opportunity - create your own!
