

Transcript of conversation during May 22, 2019 Strategic Planning Session, beginning at hour 2:40:03.

McKenzie Fleurimond: When Michael, Commissioner, got that voicemail the day after...

Michael Joseph: And he heard it.

McKenzie: And, um, the verbiage that was on there...

Michael: About hanging and everything else.

McKenzie: Right. And those things, you know...

Phyllis Smith: Did you save them?

Michael: Oh, I have them.

McKenzie: Well, and I can, I can ... and part of me, and part of me ...

Michael: No, but th...

McKenzie: And part of me ...

Michael: A lot of people think it's a joke.

McKenzie: Right.

Michael: And you can't ...

Phyllis: There's no such thing as a joke.

Michael: No, no, but ...

Phyllis: [Unintelligible] your family.

McKenzie: But I can see why he did, why he took the course of action that he took.

Michael: Because what was I gonna add. I thought to myself, by me doing this first he's just gonna say oh that was just me playing around and whatever, because the person's connected to someone here. And ...

[Unknown female speaker off camera]: Do you know who it is?

Michael: Oh, yeah. At the same time, I have to play it out in my mind. I have to play it out in my mind. How is this gonna, how is this gonna ... [unintelligible] plan.

Fortuna Smukler: Can I say who it is?

Michael: Fortuna, please. I'm asking ...

Fortuna: Okay, I won't.

[Unintelligible cross talk]

McKenzie: And I can understand Michael not wanting to further...

Michael: I don't wanna...

McKenzie: Exacerbate the...

Michael: I don't wanna further exacerbate the situation, but at the same time I have to take that my, um, we're in a political environment. So I have to take a lot of that into consideration. Alright?
