NEWS RELEASE

Thursday, January 23, 2020

Corporal Pablo Lima was restored to full duty on Thursday, January 23, 2020, following the close out of an internal affairs investigation and full legal review.

At no time was the Corporal ever suspended as had been incorrectly reported by various media outlets. As per policy, he was placed on paid administrative leave until the investigation was complete.

The investigation concluded Corporal Lima did not post the meme that a reporter from the Miami Herald brought to the attention of the Town Manager. In addition, the investigation concluded none of the posts that were "liked" by Corporal Lima on his social media demonstrated he has any bias or prejudice against any religious or protected group.
