So, the City of North Miami did not receive or track any earned revenue for Superbowl weekend? The ticketing agency provided no documentation of numbers of tickets sold? No point of sale information was given to the City from beverage sales?

I'm very confused. Why would this be the case?

Or are departments just not turning over publicly requested information?

Has to be one or the other.

Please advise. It's been an unreasonable amount of time.

Good morning Ms. Hill,

The reason for the delay is that we are waiting for a response from the corresponding vendors that handled sponsorships and ticketing, the city contracted out those services.

Hi Francisco,

I no longer need the expenses, but I would like the revenue aspect of this records request. Any update on the ticket sales, drink sales and any other monies received for Superbowl weekend at NoMi Red Garden? When do you expect to have this information?
