VIOLATION: If you believe any irregularities or fraud involving voter registration or voting, or candidate or issue petition activities have been committed, please state the specific acts committed by the person or entity named in this complaint:

On November 3, 2020, Commissioner Paule Villard committed election fraud by taking a voter into the precinct in North Miami Beach, and filling in her ballot. She did this without obtaining permission from the voter or completing the required Declaration to Provide Assistance. Because election officials allowed Villard to do this, I also suspect at least one or more election workers were complicit in this crime.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

State in your own words exactly what happened. Please include details such as what happened, where the events or acts happened, when they happened (including dates and times), what you were told, who spoke to you and to whom you spoke, what you agreed or did not agree to, and who else saw or knows about what happened. Include the names, addresses and phone numbers of relevant persons. Also, give any reasons why you feel that the person or entity against whom you have brought this complaint knew that his or her actions were wrongful. The more specific information that you provide to us, the better we will be able to assist you.

Please see my attached email complaint to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement dated August 12, 2021, which is self-explanatory. I also attach a follow up email with additional evidence, dated September 8, 2021.

The FDLE did interview the witness, once by telephone and a second time in person. The witness has not heard back from the FDLE, and I have never received any response at all from the FDLE.

I am now filing this complaint with your office in the hopes that something will be done about this election fraud. I am especially concerned because the next municipal election will be held on November 8, 2022, and we do not want this fraud to happen again.

Check here if additional pages or documents are attached.

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Stephanie Kienzle. I reside at 7535 SW 26 Court, Davie, Florida 33314. I am an investigative blogger for VotersOpinion.com. For the past eleven years I have written extensively about corruption in local government for the Cities of North Miami Beach, North Miami, as well as surrounding municipalities.

I have long suspected election fraud committed by public officials in both North Miami and North Miami Beach. In 2011, we had enough evidence to have a previous elected official, Frantz Pierre, arrested for absentee ballot fraud, but the Miami State Attorney, Katherine Fernandez Rundle, refused to follow through. It was frustrating, to say the least. However, Frantz Pierre finally did get arrested in 2018 on eleven unrelated felonies (see attached), for which he negotiated a plea deal in 2020. Even though it wasn't for voter fraud, I was still vindicated.

For over a decade I have been tenacious about fighting fraud and public corruption. I make absolutely no income from VotersOpinion. In fact, my website costs me personally several thousand dollars a year to maintain. However, I am passionate about good governance, and I consider what I do to be a public service.

At the present time, I have irrefutable evidence that a current North Miami Beach elected official, Commissioner Paule Villard, blatantly committed election fraud in the November 3, 2020 municipal election, along with a possible co-conspirator from the Miami-Dade County Elections Department.

On election day, a North Miami Beach resident by the name of [REDACTED] went to vote at her precinct in person at the Marjorie & William McDonald Center, which is located at 17051 NE 19 Avenue, North Miami Beach, Florida 33162.

Prior to election day, [REDACTED] had been dealing with an issue with the City of North Miami Beach regarding a Code citation, and a friend of hers suggested that she speak with Commissioner Paule Villard who could possibly help her with her situation. While outside the precinct on election day, that friend introduced her to Commissioner Villard.

Before [REDACTED] could even say a word to Ms. Villard about her Code citation problem, the Commissioner led her inside the precinct, stood with her while she received her ballot, and then led [REDACTED] to a voting booth to vote. Commissioner Villard then took the ballot and filled in three bubbles on [REDACTED]'s ballot, presumably for the three North Miami Beach candidates who were running in that election, and who are close friends of Ms. Villard. The three are Michael Joseph and McKenzie Fleurimond, who were running for re-election, and newcomer Daniela Jean, who was recruited to run for office by McKenzie Fleurimond, her friend and fellow church member.

After illegally filling in [REDACTED]'s ballot for those three races, Villard then handed the ballot back to her so that she could finish voting for the other candidates on the ballot. During the entire process, Villard stood by [REDACTED] and, in fact, escorted her to the final station, at which point she was instructed by an Elections Department employee to insert her ballot into the machine to be tabulated. Villard then parted ways with [REDACTED] who left the building. She never spoke to Ms. Villard again.

At some point during their brief meeting, Paule Villard made a point of telling [REDACTED] that she is a Commissioner and that "her picture is on the wall" inside City Hall.

[REDACTED] was stunned by this entire experience. She told me that she knew what Ms. Villard did was illegal, but that she was afraid to report it to anyone. At the time, she was a newcomer to the City, having moved to North Miami Beach only two months earlier, and she didn't want to cause problems for herself. However, as time went on, this matter weighed heavily on her and she finally contacted me through a third party because she knew I would follow through. [REDACTED] confirmed to me today that she is willing to attest to the facts of this incident to law enforcement, as well as testify in a court of law, in the hopes of seeking justice. Her telephone number is [REDACTED], and she looks forward to hearing from you.

It must be noted that, contrary to Florida election law, Paule Villard not only escorted [REDACTED] throughout the entire voting process, yet did not request, nor did she complete, the required ADA Declaration to Provide Assistance form for the Miami-Dade Elections Department. Accordingly, Ms. Villard should never have been allowed to escort a voter without the requisite form being signed and submitted. For some unknown reason, however, one or more of the Election Department employees allowed this to happen.

I made a public records request from the Miami-Dade County Elections Department for a list of the poll workers for the November 3, 2020 General Election who worked at the Marjorie & William McDonald Center that day. I received a response today via email from Records Custodian Ramon Castellanos, with the following list of employees:

John Petroske, Clerk
Arlene Daniel
Roudelyne Pollas
Juan Pelaez
Emmanuel Bichotte
Patricia Garcia
Henry Joseph
Hugo Miranda
Ricardo Muschette
Paulette Rose
Evidalia Toquica Higuera
Lesley Visser
Aaron Zimroth
Yvonne Rodriguez
Marilyn Prosper

I am alleging that Paule Villard committed election fraud by handling and completing the ballot belonging to another person, and by not submitting an ADA Declaration to Provide Assistance form.

By the same token, I am alleging that at least one or more of the Miami-Dade County Elections Department poll workers aided and abetted Paule Villard by allowing her to enter into a voting booth with a registered voter without completing said ADA Declaration to Provide Assistance form.

Furthermore, I would note that while I have discovered this one verifiable instance of Paule Villard's commission of election fraud, it's highly likely that she has done this on other occasions to other voters.

Paule Villard has violated not only Florida elections laws, but Federal elections laws as well. It is my hope that the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's Public Corruption Unit will investigate this matter.

If you need more information please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

Good evening. Further to my complaint below, I requested from the Miami-Dade County Elections Department for copies of all ADA Declarations to Provide Assistance forms submitted on election day, November 3, 2020 for the two precincts located at the McDonald Center in North Miami Beach. This is the same day and precinct that Ms. Lourdes Delahuerta witnessed election fraud committed by Commissioner Paule Villard. Mr. Ramon Castellanos of the Elections Department stated that only one voter requested Assistance, per the attached form, and it was not Ms. Delahuerta. In a separate email, I will forward to you the email he sent to me.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.
