CHECK-IN TIMES

For domestic travel, customers traveling with checked baggage must obtain a boarding pass and check their baggage no less than forty (40) minutes prior to scheduled departure and be onboard the aircraft no less than fifteen (15) minutes prior to the scheduled or posted departure time. Customers traveling without checked baggage must obtain a boarding pass no less than thirty (30) minutes prior to scheduled departure and be onboard the aircraft no less than fifteen (15) minutes prior to scheduled or posted departure time. For international travel, all customers must obtain a boarding pass and check their baggage no less than sixty (60) minutes prior to scheduled departure and be onboard the aircraft no less than fifteen (15) minutes prior to the scheduled or posted departure time.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

For domestic travel, customers over the age of 18 must present government-issued photo identification that includes a tamper resistant feature, name, date of birth, gender, and expiration date. Documents required for international travel vary according to country of travel, citizenship, residency, age, length of stay, purpose of visit, etc., and customers should contact the embassy or consulate in their destination country for all documentation requirements, including proof of return or onward travel. It is your responsibility to ensure you have the required documentation for travel. JetBlue reserves the right to deny boarding to anyone without proper documentation and is not responsible for any failure by you to have the required documentation for entry into a foreign country or return into the United States.

ADVICE TO DOMESTIC CUSTOMERS ON CARRIER LIABILITY

For travel entirely within the U.S., JetBlue's liability for loss, damage or delay in delivery of baggage is limited to $3,800 per ticketed passenger unless a higher value is declared in advance and additional charges are paid. JetBlue assumes no responsibility for fragile, unsuitably packaged, irreplaceable, essential, or perishable items. Please refer to JetBlue's Contract of Carriage for additional information.

ADVICE TO INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS ON LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Passengers on a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that international treaties known as the Montreal Convention, or its predecessor, the Warsaw Convention, including its amendments, may apply to the entire journey, including any portion thereof within a country. For such passengers, the treaty, including special contracts of carriage embodied in applicable tariffs, governs and may limit the liability of JetBlue in respect of death or injury to passengers, and for destruction or loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage. If your journey also involves carriage by other airlines, you should contact them for information on their limits of liability. Please refer to JetBlue's Contract of Carriage for additional information, including the limits of liability for services provided in the European Union.

NOTICE OF OVERBOOKING OF FLIGHTS

While JetBlue does not intentionally overbook its flights, there is still a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, JetBlue will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, including failure to comply with JetBlue's check-in deadlines, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. Please refer to JetBlue's Contract of Carriage for the complete rules for the payment of compensation and JetBlue's boarding priorities. Some airlines do not apply these consumer protections to travel from some foreign countries, although other consumer protections may be available. Check with your airline or your travel agent.

SUBJECT: APEX CALL MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE

This memorandum is intended to advise the Mayor & Commission that members of the City and Police Administration will be visiting New Orleans, LA on Friday, July 8, 2022, for an onsite demonstration of a new all-in-one emergency call management solution, APEX.

Considering the potential financial investment to the City, Carbyne (APEX) has extended an invitation to the City and Police Administration to see the solution in action in New Orleans, one of the largest 911 centers in the US. By way of this memo, we would like to extend an invitation to any elected official who is interested in attending this site visit as well. Please provide your availability to travel with the City and Police Administration by July 1, 2022, if interested. You may provide your availability to Ashley Francois, Ashley.francois@citynmb.com.

APEX in the marketplace is referred to as a mission critical contact center platform. Its leverages the latest technology (location, text, screenshare, etc.) that emergency operators need to effectively perform their daily duties. Equally as important to the use of the latest communication methods is the solutions' ability to centralize inbound and outbound information.

Following the visit, an updated memorandum will be provided to Mayor and Commission regarding the feasibility of this solution replacing our current call center.

As always, we remain available should you have any questions or concerns.
